PUBLISHED BY

JAMES GILBERT, 49, PATERNOSTER ROW, LONDON,

Orders received by all Booksellers, Stationers, and Newsvendors; and at the Railway Stations. Foreign Orders will be executed by J. GILBERT on liberal terms; or they can be either sent to the Wholesale Bookseller or Stationer, or to any of the numerous Merchants or Manufacturers who export to all parts of the world.

IT WILL BE NECESSARY, HOWEVER, TO ORDER GILBERT'S EDITIONS, PUBLISHED AT 49, PATERNOSTER ROW, LONDON.

TO ENGINEERS, BREWERS, WHARFINGERS, and OTHERS requiring WATER-SIDE PREMISES.—TO BE LET, on LEASE, the WHARF, WAREHOUSES, and other PREMISES, in Broad-street, Ratcliff, known as the East India Company's Saltpetre Warehouses. They contain manager's house, stables, offices, and every other accommodation for the carrying on of the most extensive business.—Apply to Messrs. MILLER and HORNE, Solicitors, 78, King William-street, City, or to Mr. T. J. DYER, 45a, Lombard-street, who will give permission to inspect the premises.

SOUTH EASTERN ARCADE.—This Arcade, situated on the approach to the London Bridge Terminus of the SOUTH-EASTERN RAILWAY, being nearly completed, and fit for occupation, and applications having been made for more than treble the number of shops that the Arcade contains, it is proposed by the proprietor to LET the different PREMISES by TENDER. All the shops have two fronts, sitting and sleeping apartments and some of them basement stories attached to them. It is calculated, from certain data, that upwards of five millions of persons will pass through and by this Arcade annually, on their way to and from the different trains that start from the South-Eastern Terminus, thus affording an unprecedented opportunity for trade. Persons desirous of becoming lessees may see the terms and conditions, and a draft of the proposed lease, and receive a form of tender, by application to Messrs. TILLEARD, HOLT, and FREEMAN, Solicitors, No. 14, Old Jewry; or to Mr. SAMUEL BEAZLEY, Architect, at his offices, 29, Bedford-square, at both of which places plans may be seen. Tenders, sealed up, under separate covers, and marked "The Arcade," showing the particular shop tendered for, and stating the trade of the applicant, must be lodged at the office of Mr. SAMUEL BEAZLEY, before twelve o'clock at noon, on the 19th day of March next. The Proprietor does not bind himself to accept the highest tender.

PARISH CONTRACTS.—MESSRS. ORSI and ARMANI beg to inform Parish Authorities that they are open to CONTRACTS for the making and keeping in repair, FLAT PAVEMENTS, PATHS, &c., with their PATENT METALLIC LAVA, or with their newly-invented GRAVEL LAVA.

Messrs. O. & A. are willing to receive payments, for work done, by Annual Instalments.

Specimens may be seen, and every information obtained, at the Offices, 4, Crutched-hall Chambers, Mincing-lane.

BROOKS (from Dollond's), OPTICIAN and MATHEMATICAL INSTRUMENT MAKER, respectfully solicits from the public a continuance of their patronage. THE GAS FITTERS' ASSOCIATION, with a view to illustrate the economy, convenience, and cleanliness of GAS, have arranged that a portion of the Royal Polytechnic Institution should, during the period the Great Exhibition remains open, be set apart for EXHIBITION and ILLUSTRATION of Apparatus, embracing any novel application of Gas for Culinary, Heating, Chemical, or Manufacturing purposes. Improvements in Burners, modes of Lighting, Governors, and Meters, each to be shown in practical operation (not being permitted at the Great Exhibition). Premiums of gold and silver will be awarded to those of the greatest utility. A sketch and description of articles prepared for exhibition should be sent to the committee. Apparatus will be received at the Institution from April 3rd to 31st inclusive, and it is hoped all interested in extending the application of gas will contribute towards the expenses to efficiently carry forward the movement, by increasing the use of gas to domestic and other purposes to which it is applicable. Subscriptions may be paid to the account of the Association at the London and Westminster Bank, St. James's-square, or the Chairman, Mr. GEORGE DETHRIDGE, 11, Leonard-street, Bobo, London, of whom any further information may be obtained.
